

SOUTHERN NEVADA HOME BUILDERS ASSOCIATION

2012 COMMITTEE SELECTION

One of the most valuable benefits of membership in the SNHBA is the opportunity to network and build relationships. Become involved by making the investment to serve on any of the committees listed below. Active participation in SNHBA committees keeps your business on the cutting edge of our industry. IF YOU CURRENTLY SERVE ON A COMMITTEE AND WISH TO CONTINUE TO SERVE, PLEASE UPDATE YOUR INFORMATION BELOW.

___ Codes – Nat Hodgson, Chairman

Meetings: 4th Thursday of every other month; 3:00pm

Staff Liaison: Connie Suckling

The committee focuses on new and revised codes that may potentially impact the homebuilding industry, including building, fire, electrical, plumbing, and mechanical codes.

___ Community Planning and Infrastructure – Rob McGibney, Chairman

Meetings: 4th Thursday of each month; 8:30am

Staff Liaison: Joe Pantuso

The committee addresses issues relating to development review by local governments, including comprehensive, general, and master plans, impact fees, policy revisions, and subdivision processing. The committee also focuses on utility and offsite regulations, reviews ordinances, amendments, exactions, and environmental issues that may impact the home building industry.

___ Golf Tournaments – Ken Williams, Chairman

Meetings: As needed

Staff Liaison: Sandie Taylor

The function of the committee is to generate funds for the Association and/or the Home Building Industry Political Action Committee (HI-PAC) through semi-annual golf tournaments.

___ Membership Marketing – Greg Oberling, Chairman

Meetings: Monthly

Staff Liaison: Beverly Williams and Monica Caruso

The responsibilities of the committee include developing new membership and retention programs, promoting the Spike Club and implementing membership drives.
