

Instructors:

Katherine E. Knister has been the Executive Director of Silver State Fair Housing Council since 1990. Fair Housing programs developed under Ms. Knister's guidance include: 1) community education about fair housing rights and responsibilities; 2) enforcement activities designed to detect and verify incidences of housing discrimination; and 3) assessment of impediments to fair housing in our community.

Ms. Knister conducts fair housing training for housing providers and consumers at local, state and national conferences and has been a trainer for HUD's Fair Housing FIRST Program.

Judy Cook brings a level of knowledge and experience, coupled with a unique perspective in real estate education, rarely seen in the industry. She is widely regarded as one of Nevada's most engaging property management speaker/trainers, offering up-to-date and useful information in a comfortable, varied, and interactive format. She is a licensed Nevada real estate Broker-Salesman and Property Management Permit holder, with over 30 years' hands-on experience in the industry.

Cook owned and operated Bradford Properties, a Reno company managing residential rentals, small commercial properties, and common-interest communities in the early 1990's. After several years as Bradford Properties, Judy sold that business in favor of pursuing her interests in teaching and consulting. Over the years, Judy has been called in as a trouble-shooter for many of northern Nevada's best-known property management firms, having successfully guided those companies toward profitability in their property management operations.

Silver State

Fair Housing Council

works to ensure equal housing opportunity for all residents of Nevada. SSFHC advocates for fair housing by providing a comprehensive program of outreach, education, and enforcement activities. By addressing the needs of housing consumers, housing providers, and local governments, SSFHC works to break down barriers to equal housing opportunity and build opportunities for community members to relate to each other as neighbors.
